Description

We emerged in 1990 as a small trading company, with the vision to become the leading construction materials trading company, as well as the goods needed to equip every household. Our desire is to remain an indispensable name and place for businesses, craftsmen and families who want quality, price security and the ability to find everything they imagined in one pleasant place. We strive to increase the satisfaction of our customers by responding to their needs, to develop partnerships and to improve the efficiency of our processes through staff training.

For over 25 years, customers have been pleased with our offer. KIPS has become a name that means a rich offer for customers, a high level of quality and business security. KIPS fosters a business policy that guarantees a leading position in the country. Our business philosophy is based on responsibility, innovation, uniqueness and a diverse range of tried and tested brands that consumers trust the most.

Our job is to monitor and understand the needs of our customers, and to strive to always meet their expectations. The best thing about us is the loyalty of our customers.
